Ages 3 to 7 | Screen-free | No need to do them all

Half-term could-do list

Pick the ones you like, and tick each one you do.

Name _____

☐

Go on an autumn walk

Collect leaves, conkers and seeds, then sort them by size.

☐

Make play dough

Mix a batch together and press leaves in to make prints.

☐

Messy play

Gloop, rainbow rice or finger paint on one big tray.

☐

Trace your name

Print a name sheet and go over the dotted letters.

☐

Make a calm-down bottle

Shake it, then breathe slowly as the glitter settles.

☐

Cosy colouring

A quiet hour with crayons and a favourite picture.

☐

Leaf rubbing

Put a leaf under paper and rub over it with a crayon.

☐

Build a den

Blankets, chairs and cushions make a great hideout.

☐

Bake something

Weigh, mix and stir. A grown-up does the oven.

☐

Put on a puppet show

Make paper puppets and use the sofa as a stage.

☐

Count conkers

Line them up and count them. Conkers are not for eating.

☐

Draw your week

Draw the best bit of each day of half term.

For grown-ups

Stay close for anything small, like conkers, seeds or glitter, as little ones may put them in their mouths. Glue the lid on the calm-down bottle, and do any oven or hot jobs yourself. More ideas and free printables are at the web address below.
